LAURA CARPEY'S RECIPES OF THE MONTH

Giardiniera Pickles

INGREDIENTS

- 2 cups distilled white vinegar
- ¼ cup granulated sugar
- 2 tablespoons kosher salt
- 3 serrano chiles
- 1 red bell pepper, seeded and cut into ½-inch dice
- ½ medium yellow onion, very thinly sliced
- ¼ cups small (about ½-inch) cauliflower florets
- ¼ cups very thinly sliced carrots (about 3 medium carrots)
- 2 medium celery stalks, very thinly sliced (about 1 cup)
- 2 garlic cloves, finely chopped
- 1 tablespoon whole yellow mustard seeds
- 1½ teaspoons dried oregano
- ¼ cup olive oil

INSTRUCTIONS

In a medium pot, combine the vinegar, sugar and salt, and bring to a boil. Add the chiles and cook until they are cooked through and the green color begins to dull,

8 to 10 minutes. Remove from the heat and allow the chiles to cool completely in the vinegar.

When the chiles are cool, slice into ¼-inch-thick rounds. Reserve the pickling liquid.

In a mixing bowl, combine the pickling liquid with the sliced chiles and all remaining ingredients. Allow to marinate for 1 to 2 days before serving. Place in an airtight container and keep in the fridge for up to 2 weeks. Makes 5 cups.

Triple Berry Angel Food Cake Roll

INGREDIENTS

- 1 Angel Food Cake mix, plus ingredients to prepare
- ¼ cup + ¾ cup powdered sugar, divided
- 8 oz light cream cheese, room temperature
- 1 ½ cups heavy whipping cream
- 1 teaspoon vanilla
- 1 ½ cups fresh strawberries, diced
- 1 ½ cups fresh blueberries
- 1 ½ cups fresh raspberries

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Preheat oven to 350 degrees F and line the bottom of a 10x15x1" rimmed baking sheet with parchment paper (make sure that it lays flat on the bottom). Do not grease the pan.

2. Prepare cake mix according to package directions. Pour into prepared pan and bake for about 20 minutes, until the top is golden and the edges start to crack. *NOTE: It will rise up in the pan significantly, even over the top. But even though it gets high it should not flow over -- if you're concerned, slip an extra baking sheet or a piece of foil underneath just in case.

3. Loosen cake from the edges of the pan while it's still warm -- it's going to be a little sticky, like angel food cake is, but it will come away easily.

4. Spread out a clean kitchen towel and sprinkle evenly with ¼ cup powdered sugar. Flip warm cake out onto the towel, peel off the parchment paper and immediately roll up starting at the short end, WITH the towel inside. Let cool completely (at room temperature for 1-2 hours or pop it in the fridge or freeze momentarily if you're impatient like me! You don't want it hot inside when you add your filling.)

5. In a large bowl, beat the cream cheese with an electric mixer until smooth. Add ¾ cup powdered sugar, vanilla and cream and beat on low until combined, then on high for 3-4 minutes until fluffy and stiff peaks form.

6. Unroll cooled cake (you can just leave it laying on the towel) and spread with half of the filling and top with half of the berries. Carefully roll back up (this time without the towel!) and place on a serving plate. Spread top and sides with remaining filling and top with remaining berries. Serve immediately (leftovers are best eaten within 24 hours). Serves 12.

REMINDER ABOUT OUR FIRM'S COMMUNICATION POLICY

About us: We perform very high quality legal work. We are highly competent and we have a highly competent support staff, but we are not perfect. We can make mistakes. We will correct a mistake if we find it or if you point it out.

It is our policy to return phone calls in the order they are received and based on the priority of the situation. If you leave a message, your call will be returned usually within 24 hours. Some clients feel that calling multiple times in a day will get their call answered faster, but that is not the case. Email is the quickest way to get a response from anyone in the office.

We work by appointment only. Without an appointment, it is unlikely Mr. Carpey would be able to meet with you.

Please utilize our support staff to answer your questions and to give you status reports. Our legal assistants and paralegals are very experienced and will often be able to respond to your requests.

The Nightmare Deposition

Last week I took a deposition (which is a sworn statement under oath in front of a court reporter, pretty normal occurrence in any case once it's in suit) of the driver of the car that rear-ended my client. This guy was insured with State Farm, and he had his State Farm attorney sitting next to him during the entire deposition (which is also normal).

What wasn't normal was how embarrassingly bad this guy did at his deposition. He could barely answer a question, couldn't remember much about anything, when he did answer he contradicted what he had said earlier. It was bad. On top of that, when I asked him if he remembered answering the interrogatories in the case (because what he said in the interrogatories did not match what he was saying at his deposition) he had no recollection of ever answering them, or ever even discussing them with his attorney, despite the fact that his attorney had him sign a separate page verifying that he did answer the interrogatories. (It's normal to answer interrogatories with your lawyer. It's not normal for the lawyer to type up the answers, not go over them with the client, but have the client sign off saying he did answer them). Needless to say, this State Farm insured represented by a State Farm attorney was not too happy with State Farm or his State Farm attorney when I was finished with him.

At Carpey Law, we like to do things a bit differently. We answer interrogatories with our clients. We go over the entire case with our clients and fully prepare them for their deposition. Our clients don't get confused at depositions.

Insurance companies treat their insureds like premium paying numbers.

We don't.

Feedback From A Carpey Law Client After Her Case Ended

Once a client's case ends, we don't just wave them goodbye and good luck. Typically, we like to ask our clients to complete a survey in order to find out what we what we could do to improve our services. After all, that's kind of important when you care about what your clients think, right? This is what our client, Vanessa, had to say.

Q: How often did you request information regarding the status of your case with us?

A: I didn't have to. Tiffany did a great job at keeping me updated with any new information.

Q: Did you find the use of emailing us was helpful in keeping you informed about the ongoing status of your case?

A: Yes. I felt like sending emails was the easiest way for me to contact Mr. Carpey.

Q: Was the "process" (meaning how things would work out at each stage of your case) explained to you?

A: Yes. I was always well-informed on what was going on with my case.

Q: How satisfied were you with the length of time it took to resolve your case?

A: I think that my case was resolved in the quickest way possible. I never felt like my case was pushed to the back burner.

Q: Please tell us what you liked most about working with us, and what you liked least.

A: I liked how I never felt like I didn't know what was going on. I received updates at every stage of my case. If I wasn't sure about something, I could call Mr. Carpey up and he'd give me the best advice he could offer.

Q: Please tell us what can be done by us to improve our client services.

A: I don't have any complaints so I'm not sure what could be done to improve your services.

Q: What was the main reason you had for choosing and hiring our firm?

A: I was referred to Mr. Carpey by my coworker's husband.

Q: Please tell us of any problems you had with our firm, if any.

A: N/A.

Q: Please add any additional comments you feel are important.

A: I had a great experience working with Mr. Carpey. Hopefully I won't need to hire him again as an accident lawyer, but if I did I wouldn't mind.
