Insights by Stuart Carpey

Handling the Complex Personal Injury Case

The scale and complexity of litigating a personal injury case often lead to a different outcome than expected, creating a dispute between the parties. Many cases boil down to the question of whether the claimed injury was caused by the accident, or whether it was aggravated by the accident. In order to prove a convincing case, we at Carpey Law employ the best medical experts to prove your injuries and damages are fully related to the case. We gather the most important evidence and prepare you for all aspects of the discovery phase and trial.

Client Input Matters

Nevertheless, when a client asks their attorney to take on a case, the request might seem like a one-sided, attorney-driven assignment. However, the most successful results in our cases come from a true partnership. It's our client and us advancing the case forward at each stage. We want our clients involved in their cases.

WE ARE COMMITTED

To providing exceptional legal services to each and every one of our clients.

Civic Achievement by Carpey Law:

Helping College Students Get Jobs After Graduation

Stuart has been part of the University of Colorado Boulder, Leeds School of Business mentorship program for the past several years. The objective of the program is to provide students with access to professionals and business owners who are willing to share their experience and expertise with the next generation of leaders.

The program teams a mentor like Stuart with a CU Boulder junior or senior and this year is specifically designed to help the students in interviewing and securing their first job.

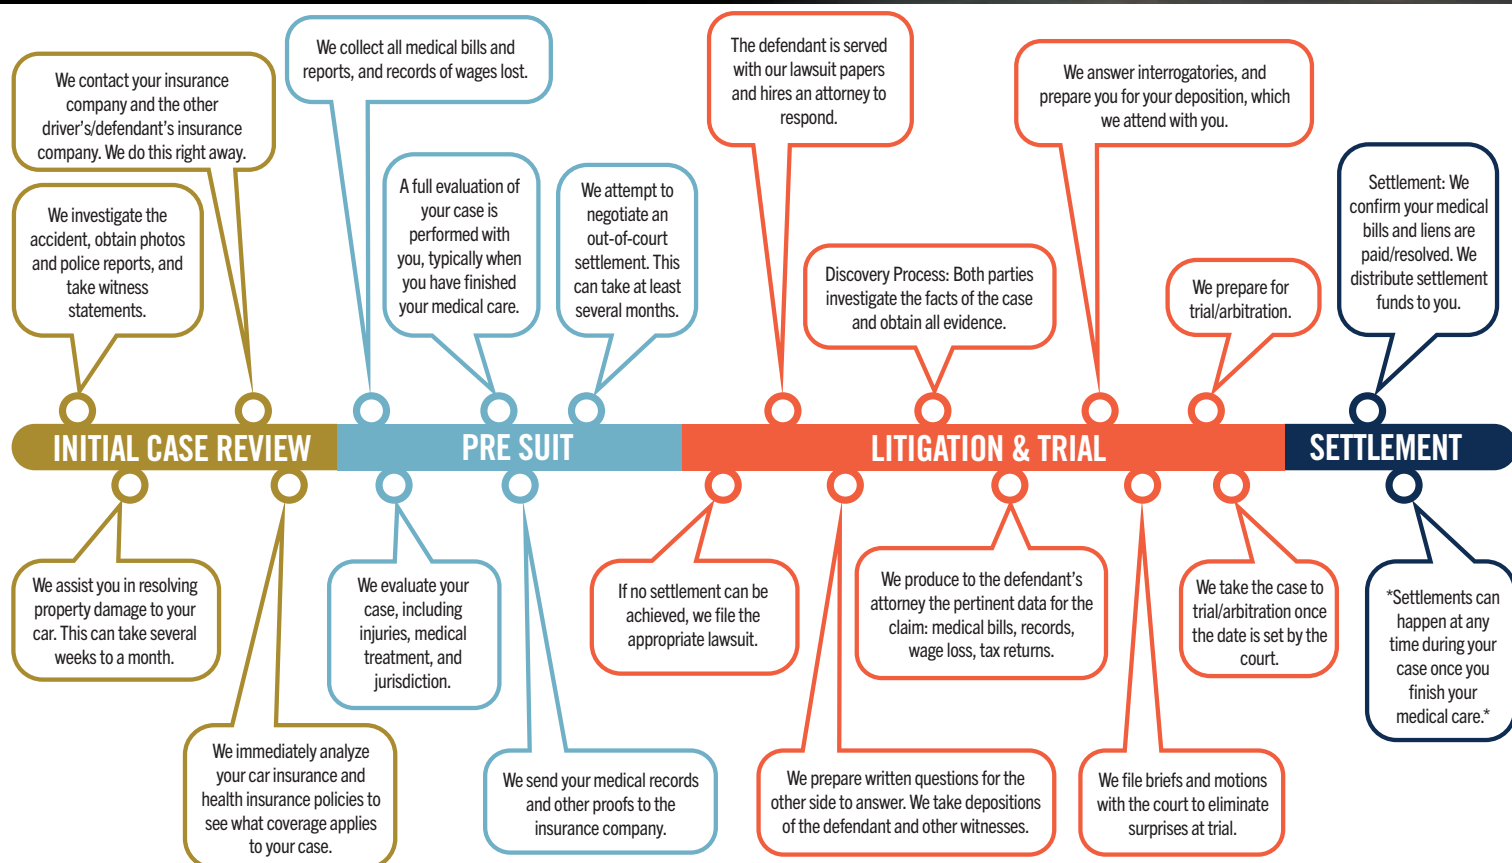

This year Stuart has been teamed up with a junior getting her marketing degree at CU Boulder. In any employment environment, college grads need all the help they can get. Advice from an experienced business owner, entrepreneur, and marketing expert is invaluable. At Carpey Law, we feel strongly about giving back to the community. It doesn't matter where in the country that community is.

Cheesy Zucchini & Red Onion Flatbread

INGREDIENTS

- Nonstick vegetable oil spray
- 1 10-ounce tube refrigerated pizza dough
- 3/4 C garlic-and-herb cheese spread (such as Alouette), divided
- 3/4 C finely grated parmesan cheese, divided
- 3 T chopped fresh Italian parsley, divided
- 1 small red onion
- 1 7-to 8-inch-long zucchini (yellow or green), cut crosswise into 1/8-inch-thick rounds, divided
- Olive oil

INSTRUCTIONS

Preheat oven to 400° F. Line baking sheet with parchment paper; spray with nonstick spray. Unroll dough onto parchment. Spread half of herb cheese over 1 long half of dough, leaving 1/2-inch plain border. Sprinkle with half of parmesan and 2 tablespoons parsley. Using parchment as aid, fold plain half of dough over filled half (do not seal edges). Spread remaining herb cheese over top; sprinkle with remaining parmesan. Remove enough outer layers of onion to yield 2-inch-diameter core; cut into 1/8-inch-thick rounds. Arrange 1 row of zucchini down 1 long side of dough. Arrange onion rounds in row alongside zucchini. Arrange 1 more row of zucchini alongside onion. Brush vegetables with oil; sprinkle with salt and pepper. Bake bread until puffed and deep brown at edges, about 24 minutes. Sprinkle with 1 tablespoon parsley.

WE KNOW INJURY LAW

Because PA laws allow many medical providers to file claims for unpaid medical bills in accident claims, even when a client has health insurance, settlement funds can be 'attacked' by medical 'liens' at the end of a case.

Clients are often unaware of this until it comes to the settlement portion of their case. As lawyers who practice injury law, we know the ins and outs of how to navigate the challenges these laws present.

Recently, we had a case where a hospital sought $50,000 against our client's claim, and hired an attorney. We successfully challenged the lien showing the attorney for the hospital different statutes and laws. Eventually, the attorney agreed to waive the lien, so our client did not have to pay from the settlement. It was a huge win for us and our client!

We go above and beyond to fight for our clients. Our skill and passion for pursuing the best outcome resulted in this huge win.
